

pressure cleaning

For the holder of this flyer Prowash professional pressure cleaning services are offering clients the opportunity to keep their premises clean and free from slip hazards.

For this limited time we are offering this at 20% off!

Don't get caught out with slippery surfaces which may result in accidents. Call Prowash today and mention this promotion to receive your discount. Offer valid until 1st December 2010.

Mouldy driveways and footpaths are Hazardous as well as unsightly.

The long wet leaves behind a dirty hazard.

As the controller of a premises, ensure you are meeting your obligations to protect your guests, residents and the general public from Hazards on your site. Let Prowash take away this concern regarding your slippery surfaces, act now and Save!!

Prowash are commercial professional pressure cleaners, and member of the Access Maintenance Group. Our company are experienced in providing external building maintenance, specialising in areas of OH&S and access solutions. Prowash are registered with Queensland Water Commission as Water efficient operators and are members of ECIA (External Cleaning Industry Association).

Our pressure cleaning services include all external facade surfaces including: Driveways, footpaths, underground car parks, tennis courts, perimeter walls, roofing surfaces and full external facades. Our work methods include specialist access including certified rope access technicians (abseiling), trained in working at heights, EWP's, cherry pickers, and conventional methods. All our methods are in accordance with requirements of Workplace Health & Safety Act, Industry codes and EPA.

If your surface is stained and requires painting, we have a fully licensed BSA painting team. Need concrete repairs, we have this covered with our maintenance division, window cleaning, this is our cleaning division, and Height safety audits and installations, All Height Safety Solutions have you covered.

For more information on our services see our website on: www.accessmaintenance.com.au So if you want it done once and done right, contact our team today! We are all about service, quality, integrity and value. Call 1800 657 648.

Access Maintenance Group are providers of professional maintenance and access services. Licenced under the QBSA 117 3314. Builder Low rise, Carpentry, Painting, and Waterproofing. Prowash is a division of AMG.